

Resolved in the affirmative;

And the bill sent to the senate.

On motion of Mr. McDaniel,

The house took up for consideration the bill from the senate entitled an act to incorporate the Philip Read Lodge No. 29, of the Order of Independent Odd Fellows in Kent county.

The said bill was then read the second time, passed, and returned to the senate.

On motion of Mr. Kerr,

The house took up for consideration, the unfavorable report submitted by him on 24th inst. from the committee on grievances and courts of justice, upon the petition of James B. Bounds and Sarah Ann Bounds, his wife, praying to be permitted to change the limitation of a deed of trust therein mentioned, and for other purposes,

The said report was then read the second time by special order, and concurred in.

On motion of Mr. Kerr,

The house took up for consideration the bill from the Senate, entitled, an act relating to the record of the proceedings of the convention, which established the declaration of rights and the constitution and form of government of this State,

The said bill was then read the second time and passed.

On motion of Mr. Ristean,

The house took up for consideration the unfavorable report submitted by him as chairman of the committee on divorces, upon the petition of James I. Pattison and Eleanor Pattison, praying to be divorced;

The said report was then read the second time;

Mr. Duke offered as a substitute for said report, a bill, entitled, an act to divorce James I. Pattison, of the city of Baltimore, from his wife Eleanor Pattison;

Which was read the first and second time by special order;

On the question being put, will the house adopt the substitute,

It was resolved in the affirmative;

The question was then put, shall the said bill pass,

Resolved in the affirmative;

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day,

The house resumed the consideration of the unfinished order of Saturday last, being the report submitted by Mr. Alexander, chairman of the committee on ways and means, on the 8th inst. in relation to the subscription of the State to certain internal improvement companies;

On motion of Mr. Giles,

The house again resolved itself into a committee of the whole house upon said report, (Mr. Maulsby being in the chair,) and after some time spent in committee, the speaker resumed the chair, and the chairman reported, that the said committee had, in obedience to
